

RADNAGE WI 2020 PROGRAMME

2nd January 2020

No Meeting

5th February 2020

"The Knee Bone's Connected to the"

Speaker – Dr Kevin Campbell-Karn

Kevin has setup a variety of Bucks University programmes, manages a successful private sports injuries clinic and is a Director of The Society of Sports Therapists. We look forward to hearing about how he views knee complaints, techniques he uses and advice he has for us....

Visitors are welcome - for more information email radnage.wi@outlook.com

4th March 2020

"The Age-old Craft of Millinery"

Speaker – Tracey Blaney

We will hear about the history on millinery and how to make a hat and headpiece. Samples of hats and hat blocks and the different materials used in making the samples will be shared. headcandyhats.com

Visitors are welcome - for more information email radnage.wi@outlook.com

1st April 2020

"Can I help? – I am a Paramedic"

Speaker – Bob Jones

Sharing the lighter side of 26 years on the ambulance front line. He combined a career as an ambulance paramedic with writing and performing. Bob performs his style of poetry and humour at festivals, schools, clubs of various genres and village halls and has written five poetry books. He also writes newspaper and magazine columns and a Blog.

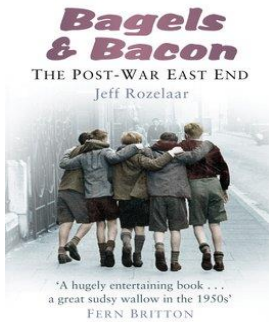

Visitors are welcome - for more information email radnage.wi@outlook.com

6th May 2020 – Resolution Meeting

WI "Resolution Meeting"

No Speaker - closed meeting

3rd June 2020
"Bagels & Bacon"
Speaker – Jeff Rozelaar

Jeff Rozelaar was born into Jewish family and raised in an East End bombarded by Hitler's V2s. Fortunate enough to be one of the lucky survivors of the Nazi menace, he was able to play in the streets among the resultant debris with his school mates.

Visitors are welcome - for more information email radnage.wi@outlook.com

1st July 2020
"Lindengate Garden - Private Tour"
Hosted by The Volunteer Team

Lindengate is a registered charity offering specialised gardening activities to help those with mental health needs in their continuing recovery. Operating from a 5-acre site adjacent to Dobbies Garden Centre in Wendover Lindengate offers a wide range of gardening/horticulture activities so that users can spend time in a managed and calm and safe environment. Tea and cakes included.

Visitors are welcome - for more information email radnage.wi@outlook.com

5th August 2020 – Summer Social
"Summer Social"

2nd September 2020
"Great Mysteries and Conspiracy Theories"
Speaker – The Revd Dr Nicholas Henderson

*Did Neil Armstrong really walk on the moon?
The Bermuda Triangle – fact or fiction?
Is the earth really flat?*

Visitors are welcome - for more information email radnage.wi@outlook.com

7th October 2020 – Birthday Meeting

"Studio Visit – Sculpture & Carvings in Marble, Stone & Bronze"

Speaker – Michael Cooper

Michael is known for his large and small scale sculpture and carvings in marble, stone and bronze. His pieces being a study in a wide variety of animal, bird and the human figure. Working with different mediums his pieces are irresistibly tactile and the viewer is drawn to touch as much as view his pieces. Large scale commissions include a reclining figure in Covent Garden and three bears at Bicester Village.

Visitors are welcome - for more information email radnage.wi@outlook.com

4th November 2020 – AGM

"Foraging – The Wild Side of Life"

Speaker – Fred (the Forager) Gillam

Find out why some of our local habits are renowned for foraging - ancient woodlands in the Chilterns are home to much scarce flora and fauna. Fred Gillam (aka Fred The Forager) has been foraging for his supper for over 3 decades and will let us know what we can safely pick, what to avoid, how to prepare your harvest and most importantly how to make sure that all of this is done sustainably. He will bring along locally foraged goods and samples.

2nd December 2020

"Introduction to Essential Oils"

Speaker – Miranda Lewis

Find out why essential oils are part of Miranda's day from the start to the end. You will go home smelling beautiful and with an item you have made.

Visitors are welcome - for more information email radnage.wi@outlook.com

Guests are very welcome to all meetings for a small donation of £3.50pp
We start our meetings at 7.30pm please arrive for 7.15pm